

NEW AUSTRALIAN PICTURE BOOKS

from ECHIDNA BOOKS

JUNE
2005
Release

Crimson Feathers for Ty

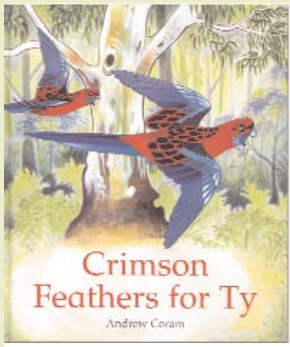

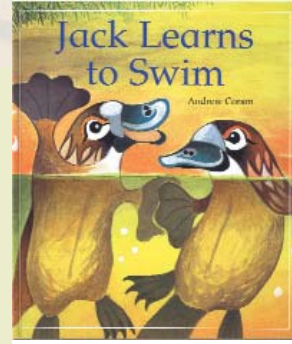

AND

Jack learns to Swim

BY

Andrew Coram

These enchanting and beautiful picture books will delight young readers and the adults alike! In Jack Learns to Swim, find out why Jack, a baby platypus, isn't feeling so happy, and how he learns to ask for help. In Crimson Feathers for Ty, read about a crimson rosella chick and her quest to have the most beautiful feathers of all. Ty eventually learns to be happy with who she is.

Andrew Coram grew up in Hobart. He has always loved to paint and draw, and he has always loved animals. He has worked as a zoo keeper and zoo educator at Melbourne Zoo, and has always been surrounded by an array of pets at home. Jack Learns to Swim and Crimson Feathers for Ty are his first published books. Andrew will be appearing on the 'Hello Music Show' on Foxtel and Channel 31 during May.

ISBN and TITLE:

1740709438 Crimson Feathers for Ty

1740709373 Jack Learns to Swim

EXTENT: 32pp

FORMAT: 250 x 215mm

FEATURES:

- Informative as well as attractive
- All information on the animals is factual
- Each title includes a page of animal facts
- As well being charming and enjoyable in their own right, the stories convey a message
- These books will suit a range of age levels from pre-school through the primary years

RRP
$24.95

ECHIDNA BOOKS

an imprint of Heinemann Library

PO Box 460

Port Melbourne VIC 3207

Tel: (03) 9245 7111

Website: www.heinemannlibrary.com.au

Free-fax for trade orders: 1800 645 682